

Éva Szalma graduated from the Szeged University in 2000 as MA in Philosophy. Her professional employment started in 2001 in Eduweb Multimedia Technology and Distance Learning Co. as consultant (later senior consultant) in learning development. Since 2003 she works for the Budapest University of Technology and Economics as adult learning coordinator in the Centre for Learning Innovation and Adult Learning. She gained status as expert at the Hungarian Public Foundation of Apertus on the field of ODL, adult education and quality assurance in 2004. From September 2006 until the end of 2007 she was appointed as Membership Officer for the European Foundation for Quality in E-learning and since 2008 she works as Project Officer at the European Distance and E-Learning Network (EDEN). Her language command includes Hungarian (mother tongue), English (fluent) and Serbian (good).